(October 8, 2024 | Monticello, Illinois) – Residents in the Monticello, Illinois, area will soon have increased access to primary care through a new OSF Medical Group clinic at 777 Bridge Street.

Amber Oberheim, APN, a longtime Monticello resident, is expected to begin seeing patients this winter. People of all ages can see Oberheim for a variety of primary care issues including annual physicals, chronic and acute illnesses, mental health concerns and more. Other health care providers will staff the clinic to provide vaccines and lab work.

More services at the Monticello clinic may be announced in the future. The new clinic represents the continued commitment of OSF HealthCare to bring quality health care to residents where they are.

People interested in making an appointment at the new clinic can call 217-560-6300.
